

Fall 2020 RSI Self-review Report Sample

Please submit a report for each section of classes you taught fall 2020 asynchronously online.

 Required

First Name *

Your answer

Last Name *

Your answer

Course

Your answer

CRN (you may list all CRNs of the same course) *

Your answer

Please answer each of the following question based on the RSI requirements listed in the Senate Approved RSI plan for your department. (Copies of approved Department RSI Plan are available in the Faculty Resources Canvas RSI Module)

How many discussion forums with instructor/student interaction are required in Department RSI plan? *

Your answer

How many discussion forums with instructor/student interaction are in your course ?

Your answer

What is the percentage or number of substantive faculty discussion forum responses required in Department plan?

Your answer

What is the percentage or number of substantive faculty discussion forum responses you provided in the course?

Your answer

What is the number of substantive course announcements required in Department Plan?

Your answer

What is the number of substantive course announcements you provided in the course? (Please remember Announcements must have academically related content to be counted as RSI)

Your answer

What is percentage or number of substantive feedback comments on assignments are required in Department plan?

Your answer

What percentage or number of substantive feedback comments on assignments are posted by you in the course? (please note where the comments are provided)

Your answer

Please describe other forms of RSI identified in the department plan and how you addressed those requirements.

Your answer

Please provide any additional information which will assist the RSI team in reviewing this course.

Your answer

Does this online class meet the RSI requirements identified in the Approved Department RSI Plan and can the evidence of RSI be found in the Canvas course shell?

Yes

No

Submit

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This form was created inside of Coastline Community College. Report Abuse