Giving thanks for all that you do

It's a short week this week as we break for the Thanksgiving holiday to celebrate with friends and loved ones. With the bustle of the holidays quickly approaching, I want to take the time to thank you for your service to our students. We are part of their extended family: encouraging and supporting their educational and career goals and taking pride in their accomplishments. Have a wonderful and rejuvenating Thanksgiving weekend!

Classified Senate raises nearly $500

The Coastline Community College Fall Festival event took place on October 31 and raised $466 for Classified Senate activities and scholarships. Several Coastliners attended in costume and participated in games and a costume contest. Taco plate lunches were sold as well as homemade baked goods, and attendees also had the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets for a chance to win one of 11 gift baskets. "We are so grateful for all of the support from our colleagues and outside businesses that came out to the event," said Vice President of Coastline's Classified Senate, Liz Caluag.

Paralegal Studies Orientation scheduled for December 1

Steven Barnes, Paralegal Studies Program Coordinator, would like to inform Coastliners of the upcoming Paralegal Studies Orientation scheduled for December 1. This informative session is open to the public, including any Coastline student who has an interest in the Paralegal field. For details, please see the attached flier (following page). Faculty and staff, please pass along this information to your students!
