

COASTLINE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Financial Aid Office

Eligibility – High School Verification

- Students who first enroll in a program of study on or after July 1, 2012, will be ineligible for federal financial aid if they do not have a high school diploma, or a General Education Diploma (GED), or passed the California Proficiency Examination (CHSPE), or do not meet the State's home school requirements.
- Please submit proof that you have completed one of the above requirements directly to the Financial Aid Office.
- If you completed this requirement in a foreign country and you are unable to obtain records, please submit a signed statement regarding these circumstances directly to the Financial Aid Office.