

CYNDY GARCIA

Adjunct Counselor,
Special Programs & Services

PROFILE

Cyndy Garcia (she/ella) is a proud first-generation, non-traditional community college alumna who began her educational journey at Orange Coast College and Santa Ana College before transferring to UCLA. Navigating higher education was challenging as she made sense of her identities, experiences, and aspirations. Now, as a counselor, she's excited to support students as they pursue their academic, career, and personal goals.

CONTACT

PHONE:
714-241-6214

EMAIL:
cgarcia276@ccd.edu

WEBSITE:
Coastline.edu

EDUCATION

California State University, Long Beach
M.S. Counseling, Student Development in Higher Education
Applied Disability Studies Graduate Certificate
August 2020

University of California, Los Angeles
B.A. Sociology, Education Studies minor
June 2017

Santa Ana College
A.A.T. Sociology
June 2015

MBTI & Strong Interest Inventory Certified

COUNSELING EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Counselor, Coastline College
Special Programs & Services

Adjunct Counselor, Orange Coast College
General Counseling, AIM, & Starfish Team

Adjunct Counselor & LGBTQIA+ Co-Coordinator, MiraCosta College
General Counseling & LGBTQIA+ Equity Program

Adjunct Counselor & Instructor, Long Beach City College
General Counseling and Society and Education Career and Academic Pathway

Provide academic, career, and personal counseling to students.

LINKEDIN PROFILE

www.linkedin.com/in/cyndyegarcia