

VERONICA SANCHEZ

PROFILE

Veronica began her higher education journey at MiraCosta Community College and is proud to be both a first-generation college student and a transfer student. Navigating the challenges of being the first in her family to pursue higher education gave her valuable insight into the importance of guidance and access to resources. She is committed to creating spaces where students feel supported and empowered to recognize their potential while building the confidence and tools to achieve their goals.

CONTACT

EMAIL:

Vsanchez73@cccd.edu

COUNSELING CLASSES TAUGHT

COUN A105 - Strategies for College Success

EDUCATION

M.A. Educational Counseling, San Diego State University

B.A. Psychology, San Diego State University

Undergraduate Transfer Coursework, MiraCosta College and Palomar College

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Adjunct Counselor, Coastline College, 2025 - Present
 - General Counselor
- Adjunct Counselor, Orange Coast College, 2025 - Present
 - Student Equity and Pirates' Promise Program Coordinator
 - Teach Counseling A105 - Strategies for College Success
- Faculty Mentor, Orange Coast College, 2025 - Present
 - Faculty Mentor for Internship Experience Course
 - Support student interns in achieving their goals at their internships, while also providing mentorship around career path of interest.
- Counseling Intern, Compton College, 2023
 - General and Social Sciences Majors Counseling Intern
- Counseling Division Coordinator, 2021 - 2025