ASG BYLAWS

Preamble

We, the students of Coastline College, establish these Bylaws for the Coastline College Associated Student Government (ASG) to champion the intellectual, social, educational, and cultural welfare of the Student Body.

ASG is recognized as the official student governing body of Coastline College and represents the student voice within the college's participatory governance process.

Article I: Name of the Organization

The name of this co-curricular organization is the Associated Student Government of Coastline College (ASG).

The organization may also be referred to as ASGCC, ASG or Student Government. Any reference in these Bylaws to "ASG" or "Student Government" refers to the Associated Student Government of Coastline College as a whole.

Article II: Mission

The Associated Student Government (ASG) is the official voice of Coastline College students, dedicated to representing, empowering, and advocating for student needs by fostering an inclusive community, and supporting initiatives that enhance education through transparent, collaborative governance. Our community is focused on Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Social Justice, Accessibility, and Anti-Racism (DEISAA). Empowered by students, ASG boldly creates change to build a thriving, equitable future where all students succeed and make a lasting impact.

Article III: Purpose

The purpose of this Student Government organization shall be to:

- A. Effectively represent the Coastline College Student Body in the participatory governance process;
- B. Serve as a communication link between students and Coastline College (California Education Code Sections 70901 (b)(1)(E), 70902 (b)(7), 76060-76067 and Title V of the California Administrative Code 51023.7);
- C. Effectively participate in College and District policy decision-making processes (CCCD BP #5400);

ASG BYLAWS

- D. Provide input on proposed college programs, policies, procedures, and services that support the multicultural, social, and educational development of students;
- E. Foster collaborative relationships with Coastline administration, faculty, and classified professionals to promote student success;
- F. Advocate for the best interests and well-being of the students of Coastline College;
- G. Protect and promote understanding of student rights and responsibilities;
- H. Identify and address student concerns;
- I. Support opportunities for growth, community, and empowerment;
- J. Provide ASG-sponsored programs, events, and services for students;
- K. Create and grow a vibrant community and thriving student life at Coastline College;
- L. Encourage student engagement, leadership opportunities, and development of transferable skills; and
- M. Foster a positive educational and cultural environment that supports student well-being and is free of discrimination.

Article IV: Membership and Eligibility

Section 1: Membership

The Associated Student Government members include all students currently enrolled at Coastline. Eligible students may apply for vacant officer positions. All members representing ASG are subject to its Bylaws.

Section 2: Eligibility

- A. Coastline students may serve as an ASG officer provided they meet the following criteria:
- B. Continuously enrolled at Coastline College in at least five (5) credit units during their active term in the fall and spring semesters (CA Ed Code § 76061 and per Assembly Bill 1736) students are eligible at the time of the election and throughout the student's term if they:
 - a. Are enrolled in an adult education program at Coastline College, OR
 - b. Have a documented disability through Coastline's Special Programs & Services.

ASG BYLAWS

- C. Maintain the minimum academic standards required by the Coast Community College District.
- D. Be in good disciplinary standing with the Coast Community College District.
- E. Have the capacity to commit time to: ASG general and sub-committee meetings, ASG position duties, ASG Committee duties, ASG events, College/District Committees, and College Events each semester;
- F. Have a strong interest in student advocacy and a willingness to serve fellow students of Coastline; and
- G. Students may not hold voting rights in ASG during any term in which an immediate relative (by blood, marriage, adoption, or domestic partnership) also serves as a voting member of ASG. This provision follows Coast Community College District Board Policy 7310 (Nepotism).

Section 3: Participation Protections

No student shall be barred from participation in ASG on the basis of any of the following, including but not limited to:

Race or ethnicity, gender, gender identity, gender expression, religion, age, national origin, sexual orientation, marital status, medical condition, pregnancy, physical or mental disability, military or veteran status, or genetic information or because they are perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

Section 4: Attendance Communication Policy

- A. All members are required to communicate any anticipated absence or late arrival in advance of scheduled meetings, in accordance with Article XV, Section 2, to ensure the Associated Student Government can plan accordingly.
- B. Notification must be provided to the Advisor(s) as the primary point of contact. Members must also notify the designated officer communication channel to ensure ASG is informed.
- C. Submission of notice does not require disclosure of personal reasoning; however, timely and professional communication is expected.
- D. Failure to provide appropriate notice (Article XV, Section 2) prior to an absence or late arrival by over 30 minutes will be considered a lapse in responsibility and may result in disciplinary action in accordance with Article XV, Section 1 of these Bylaws, unless experiencing extenuating circumstances.

- E. College/District committee responsibilities are not exempt from these policies.

Article V: Activation and Reactivation Processes

Section 1: Requirements to Be Active

To maintain active status, ASG must have a minimum of three ASG officers, with one being an Executive Officer. Should ASG membership fall below three officers, the organization will be deemed inactive and the ASG Advisor shall take action on behalf of the ASG, in consultation with existing officers, as applicable.

Section 2: Reactivation Process

- A. While the ASG is inactive and the ASG Advisor is acting on behalf of the ASG, the ASG Advisor shall hold a special ASG meeting upon receipt of an officer application from a student who meets the criteria specified in Article IV, Section 2 of these Bylaws.
- B. Applications for vacant positions shall be addressed, discussed, and approved or rejected during this meeting in the order in which the positions are listed in Article VII of these Bylaws.
 - a. During this meeting, the ASG Advisor shall have the authority to appoint an eligible applicant to a vacant officer position, but the ASG Advisor shall discuss with and consider the opinions of any current ASG officers in attendance.
- C. Upon having three active ASG officers with one being an Executive Officer, the ASG shall be reactivated, and any further vacancies must proceed according to Article XI of these Bylaws. The ASG Advisor shall assume their normal role and duties as stated in Article X of these Bylaws immediately upon reactivation.
- D. The ASG may choose to have the ASG Advisor continue to chair the remainder of the previously mentioned special meeting, or any officer may volunteer to chair it.

Article VI: Benefits

Section 1: Parking Permits

ASG officers or delegates may have the cost of their parking permit provided or reimbursed for their active participation in ASG.

ASG BYLAWS

Section 2: Meal Stipends and Reimbursements

ASG members may receive meal stipends and reimbursement for ASG-related travel. Reimbursements shall be permitted for pre-approved ASG purchases, in coordination with the ASG Advisor, for the amount paid.

Section 3: ASG Shirts and Swag Items

ASG officers and Committee Delegates are eligible to receive official ASG-branded clothing or other Coastline College branded materials.

Article VII: Organization

Section 1: Executive Board

There are six (6) ASG Executive Board positions: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Legislative Affairs Commissioner and Public Relations Commissioner. The Executive Board is responsible for the orderly conduct of ASG meetings and ASG activities.

Section 2: Officer Positions

Student Senators (Newport Beach Campus, Garden Grove Campus, Westminster Le Jao Campus, Distance Learning, Military, Campus Club, Equity, and Hope Scholar) shall be known as Officers of ASG.

Section 3: Protection for All Established Positions

No position shall be removed, eliminated, or substantively modified in a manner that alters its purpose or appointment structure unless all of the following conditions are met:

- A. Approval by a three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) vote of all currently serving ASG Members.
- B. Review through the participatory governance process, including consultation with the Office of Student Services.
- C. Any action taken to remove or materially alter any position without satisfying all conditions above shall be considered invalid.
- D. Once the Hope Scholars Senator position is finalized, it will require formal written consultation with and recommendation from the Hope Scholars Program or its institutional designee for the role to be removed, eliminated, or substantively modified in a manner that alters its purpose or appointment structure.
- E. All positions are established by the Coastline Associated Student Government.

ASG BYLAWS

Section 4: ASG Elections

Voting ASG Members (both Executive Board and Senators) shall be duly elected by the Student Body during the spring semester election time frame determined by the ASG in coordination with the ASG Advisor. Should any position be vacant post-Spring semester election, see Article XI, Section 1 of these Bylaws. Officers will transition responsibility following the final meeting of the Spring semester.

During the annual ASG election, any currently enrolled Coastline student, including current ASG officers, interested in being considered for an ASG officer position must declare intent of candidacy or be nominated by a current Coastline student within the timeframe set by the ASG Election Committee. All ASG positions are open to the Coastline Student Body.

- A. Ballots for Student Government positions shall be processed via a web-based program, which shall be distributed/made available to all currently enrolled Coastline students. The elected shall be determined by the candidate with the most votes.
- B. In no event shall a student vote be counted more than once. Only votes with an individual Coastline ID number will be included.

In the event that there are no competing applicants for a position, elections do not need to be held. The Public Relations Commissioner is the default Elections Committee Chair, however, should the PR Commissioner be interested in participating in the elections, the duties will be reassigned to another ASG Officer. Should another ASG Officer be unavailable, any Coastline student may serve as the Elections Committee Chair or serve on the Elections Committee in coordination with the ASG Advisor.

Section 5: Officer Terms

The Executive Board and ASG Officers shall be elected by the Student Body or appointed by ASG. Each officer shall serve for:

- A. No student may serve more than two (2) terms in the same executive position.
- B. No student may serve more than three (3) total terms on the Executive Board, whether consecutive or non-consecutive.
- C. No student may serve more than four (4) total terms as a voting member of the Associated Student Government.
- D. For the purposes of this section, a “term” shall be defined as one academic year. Any service exceeding fifty percent (50%) of a term shall be considered a full term.

ASG BYLAWS

- E. One full semester of service, or half of a one-year term, must be at least 8 weeks in order to count towards an ASG Officer's term limits.
- F. In no event shall any student serve more than five (5) years, or ten (10) full semesters, as an ASG Officer or Committee Delegate.

Section 6: Committee Delegate

- A. Committee delegates may serve on ASG Committees, subcommittees and task forces or represent the Student Body by serving on a campus or district-wide committee if appointed by two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote.
- B. Committee Delegates serve as non-voting members of ASG.
- C. Committee Delegates do not count toward ASG quorum.

Section 7: ASG Secretarial Support

ASG may establish a budget to cover costs of secretarial services/support for ASG in case the secretary position or an alternate is unavailable.

Section 8: Participatory Governance

The ASG officers and committee delegates will participate openly in the Coastline College's participatory governance process (CA AB1725 of 1988) by understanding the role of the Associated Student Government as a college stakeholder and shall act responsibly in fulfilling their obligations in accordance with law.

Section 9: Standing Rules

The Standing Rules of ASG, which may be amended pending a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$), are incorporated as part of these Bylaws by reference herein.

Article VIII: Duties of Executive Board and Senators

- E. If the ASG is not active, the Advisor shall chair the meeting in accordance with Article V, Section 2.

Section 3: Parliamentary Authority

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, small group internal process, shall be used as a guide to conduct and govern ASG meetings.

Section 4: Compliance with the Brown Act

The Coastline College Associated Student Government is bound by the Brown Act for all regular meetings, special meetings, emergency meetings, and ASG standing committee meetings. Below are general rules that must be followed to remain in compliance.

ASG BYLAWS

- A. All regular and standing committee meetings must provide notice and an agenda to the public 72 hours prior to the meeting.
- B. All meetings must meet quorum requirements. Quorum shall be defined as a majority of currently filled ASG Officer positions. Vacant positions shall not be included in quorum calculations.
- C. Meetings where quorum is present may not be held in secret. The public must be notified and the public informed 72 hours in advance of regular meetings (§54954.2(a)(1)) and 24 hours in advance of special meetings (§54956). If the agenda is not posted with advance notice, the meeting must be cancelled.
- D. Special meetings may be called by any member of the executive board or by a majority of the ASG officers. Only items on the Special Meeting Agenda may be discussed.
- E. The agenda must list each item of business and include a brief general description sufficient to inform the public.
 - a. Non-Agenda items may be discussed as long as no formal action is taken, (§54954.2(a)(1), §54954.2(a)(3)).
 - b. Emergency situations and immediate need for action are allowed to be added to the agenda prior to approving a motion for its approval in a regular meeting. The Meeting Minutes must document the special situation and what the emergency or immediate need for action is.
 - c. No action shall be taken on items not appearing on the posted agenda, except as permitted by law.
 - d. Closed sessions are only permitted on specific topics, like personnel, litigation, or labor negotiations.
- F. In order for action to be taken at a general or special ASG meeting, quorum must be met.

Section 5: Public Comment

- A. All members of the public have the right to comment on items within the jurisdiction of the Associated Student Government. (§54954.3).
- B. Items do not need to be on the agenda in order for the public to make comments on a topic, however members of ASG may not take action unless the item is on the agenda.
- C. The meeting chair can decide both the number of speakers and time limits per speaker, as long as they are reasonable, neutral, and applied to everyone.

ASG BYLAWS

- D. ASG general guidelines are as follows, but may be amended at the meeting chair's discretion, at the time of the meeting:
- a. Individuals wishing to make public comments at the time of the meeting, in person or remotely, are allowed a maximum of 5 minutes to address the ASG.
 - b. Individuals wishing to make public comments via online submission must submit their comments 72 hours before the scheduled meeting in order to be included in the minutes. An online submissions form will be available on the ASG website. Online submissions are limited to 650 words (Or 4,500 characters) and each commenter is limited to one comment per person per meeting. Online public comments will be read into the record by an Executive Officer, as assigned by the President at the time of the meeting.
 - c. Public comment is limited to the first 20 comments received, prioritizing current students and in-person/remote speakers first. Each topic will be limited to 20 minutes in total. All unread online submissions for public comments shall be recorded in the Meeting Minutes.

Section 6: Meeting Minutes

- A. Meeting minutes must be a record of all action taken.
- B. The vote of every ASG officer must be documented.
- C. Any emergency items or deviations must be noted.

Article XIII: Committees

Section 1: Standing Committees

Standing committees are subject to the Brown Act. Ad hoc committees composed of less than a quorum of the ASG and formed for a limited purpose and duration are exempt, consistent with state law.

The Standing Committees of the ASG shall be:

- A. Finance Committee, chaired by the ASG Treasurer;

- B. All monies collected from ASG affairs must be substantiated by pre-numbered receipts, or other auditable records.
- C. All ASG, student club, and trust funds collected from any sources whatsoever shall be deposited immediately with the Business Office.
- D. If the Business Office is not open, all monies must be deposited by 5:00 p.m. on the first business day following the event.
- E. No part of the expense of any event may be paid from the money collected without the funds first being deposited into the ASG account.
- F. The Business Office shall issue receipts for all monies received.

Section 6: Inactive Club Funds

In the event that a club remains inactive for two consecutive semesters (equivalent to one academic year), all of its funds shall be transferred to the Associated Student Government (ASG) Club Funding account.

Article XV: Due Process and Disciplinary Action

Section 1: Disciplinary Action

Every officer, delegate or representative of the Coastline College Associated Student Government (ASG) who fails to execute the duties of their position fully and faithfully may be subject to disciplinary action or removal from office by the Associated Student Government. Due process must be followed (as outlined in section 2 - Due Process) prior to any formal disciplinary action that can be considered by ASG, unless under special circumstances (listed in section 3, Item F.)

Any ASG officer who believes that a fellow officer, delegate, or representative has not fulfilled their duties fully and faithfully, (As detailed in section 2 of this Article - Full Execution of Duties,) may formally request disciplinary action by following proper procedure, (as outlined in Section 3 - Procedure for Disciplinary Action). Majority vote is required in order to consider probation or censure, two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote is required for removal from office.

ASG BYLAWS

Section 2: Due Process

Due process must be followed in order for formal disciplinary action to be taken. The following are grounds for disciplinary action.

A. Full Execution of Duties

Disciplinary action may be taken against any officer if the following conduct is exhibited.

- a. Having an unexcused absence for three (3) consecutive meetings without notice to the ASG Advisor and/or the ASG President,
 - i. It is considered an excused absence if an ASG member has provided notice to ASG and the Advisor 30 minutes prior to missing a meeting.
 - ii. It is considered an unexcused absence if no notice is given within 30 minutes of the meeting.
- b. Missing more than five (5) meetings in one semester.
- c. Failure to complete assigned responsibilities,

- h. Failure to respond to three (3) urgent communication attempts in a two-week period, including, but not limited to meeting absences or assigned ASG responsibilities,
- i. No ASG member may miss more than four (4) meetings in one semester without ASG or the ASG Advisor's approval.

B. Informal efforts to confront conduct must be taken before formal disciplinary actions can be considered. Informal efforts includes, but are not limited to the following actions:

- a. An ASG Officer may request that the ASG Advisor meet with the officer of concern to discuss solutions to conduct issues.

ASG BYLAWS

- b. One-Third ($\frac{1}{3}$) ASG Officer requests to the ASG Advisor would require an improvement plan to be implemented by the ASG Advisor and the ASG Officer in question.
- c. Fellow ASG Officers communicate their concerns to the ASG Officer in question,
- d. Others, as deemed appropriate by the majority of ASG Members.

Section 3: Procedure for Disciplinary Actions

- A. In order for disciplinary action to be taken, an ASG officer must move to request that Disciplinary Action Consideration for the officer under review be added to the agenda. The request must be seconded. No other action shall be taken, and no further discussion shall take place in the presence of quorum until the following meeting.
- B. If the officer under review is absent, best efforts to alert them of the action must be made by the ASG President and/or the ASG Advisor at least three (3) days prior to the next scheduled meeting.
- C. No special meeting may be called without posting the agenda 72 hours prior to a special meeting concerning disciplinary action.
- D. Disciplinary action items will be placed at the end of the agenda of the following meeting, before officer reports.
- E. When the “Disciplinary Action” Agenda Item is called, the following procedure must be followed.
 - a. The charging Officer must motion to seek disciplinary action against the officer under review.
 - b. The motion must be seconded.
 - c. The charging officer is given ten (10) minutes to present charges against the officer under review. They must provide evidence that the officer under review failed to execute their duties fully and/or faithfully. Evidence of informal efforts to address conduct may also be provided.
 - d. The officer under review is given ten (10) minutes to respond to the charges and present evidence.
 - e. The Meeting Chair must call for discussion, alternating between two (2) officers for the motion and two (2) officers against the motion. Once one side of the issue has no more speakers, the discussion ends.
 - f. Time for public comment must be permitted.
 - g. A vote is then called for dismissal of the officer under review.
 - h. Two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the ASG Officers present is required in order to dismiss the officer under review from their role.

ASG BYLAWS

- i. A dismissed officer loses all benefits of an ASG officer, including a parking pass for which they were compensated.
- i. If the action to dismiss the officer fails, a vote is then called to censure the officer under review. A majority vote of the officers' present at the meeting is required to censure an officer, delegate, or representative.
 - i. A censured officer, delegate, or representative must:
 - 1. Step down from any committee or taskforce chair role,
 - 2. Lose speaking and voting privilege for four (4) meetings,
 - 3. Probation is required if an officer is placed under censure.
- j. If action to censure the officer fails, a vote is called to put the officer on probation. A majority vote is required to put an officer under probation.
 - i. An officer under probation is required to do the following:
 - 1. Create a Conduct Improvement Plan with the ASG Advisor.
 - 2. Meet with the ASG Advisor once a week to discuss progress.
 - 3. Failure to improve may result in further disciplinary action.
 - ii. An officer is placed under probation for four (4) regular meetings.
- k. If none of the motions pass, the officer in question resumes their role in good standing.
- l. If the ASG President is the officer in question, the ASG Vice President will be responsible for placing the item on the next regularly scheduled agenda and act as Chair of the meeting in its entirety.
- m. Action may be reconsidered by the Student Government at any future meeting of the ASG following properly placing the item on the agenda.
- n. Letters of resignation may be accepted prior to a disciplinary action taken by ASG.
- o. Disciplinary action may be requested at public comment by any student, faculty, or staff member of Coast Community College, including the ASG Advisor.

F. Immediate Removal from Office

ASG BYLAWS

- a. Special circumstances, where an immediate vote may be called to dismiss an officer include harmful behaviors towards another person, including harassment, discrimination, sexism, racism, intimidation, threats, violence, or violations of College policies or applicable law.
- b. A unanimous vote is required to immediately remove a member of ASG from office without prior notice.

G. Returning After Dismissal

- a. ASG reserves the right to allow an officer to return to service as an ASG member one (1) year after dismissal.

Article XVI: Resignation

- A. If for any reason an officer chooses to resign from their position, they shall submit a resignation letter to the executive board and the ASG Advisor at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to their resignation date.
- B. Resignation is accepted by majority vote.
- C. If a President is resigning, they shall notify the ASG Vice President and ASG Advisor.
- D. Parking permits may be revoked by a majority vote of ASG officers if students are no longer a participating officer or delegate in ASG before the end of their term.

Article XVII: Amendments

Section 1: Proposed Bylaws Changes

Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed when seconded, upon the motion of any ASG officer. Further, an affirmative two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the ASG officers present and voting at a regular or special meeting called for the purpose of consideration of such amendment(s) must be received for passage.

Section 2: Participatory Governance Presentation

As part of the participatory governance process, the amendment(s) shall be presented to the Vice President of Student Services and the College President, who may desire to share the amendments with the College Council.

ASG BYLAWS

Section 3: Participatory Governance Input

Comments and/or recommendations, if any, in response to a review of the Bylaw amendment(s) received from the College President or designee will be considered by the Associated Student Government. The members of the Associated Student Government recognize they exist under charter of the Governing Board of the District and will make every attempt to cooperate in the spirit of collegiality in all matters, including the development and modification to their governing documents.

Article XVIII: Enacting Clause

Upon completion of the review, consideration, and adoption of any proposed amendment(s) to the Bylaws, and following consideration of any comments or recommendations submitted by the College President or designee, the Bylaws, as amended, shall become effective immediately upon adjournment of the Associated Student Government meeting at which final action is taken.

The President of the Associated Student Government shall include the enactment of the amended Bylaws on the agenda as an informational item under the heading “Enactment of Amended Bylaws.”

Article XIX: Assessments

There shall be no assessments levied against members of the Associated Student Government.

Ratified and approved on May 20, 2026.
